

OCR Entry Level History - (R435) Teacher Assessed Grade Guidance for Parents

In order to ensure that students are fairly assessed and given opportunities to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of the Entry Level History qualification the following will be used to determine a student's TAG (Teacher assessed Grade)

Type Of Assessment	Topic and Assessment Objectives that will be assessed.	Date Assessment has or will take place
Exam Paper – Set by OCR	Depth Study: Normans AO1 AO2 AO4	December 2020
Study of a Site or Individual:	Study of a Site or Individual: Henry VIII Coursework  This will be set as a task and students are to complete this independently.  AO1 AO2	Final deadline  14/05/2021
Exam Paper – Set by OCR	Thematic Study: People's Health AO1 AO2 AO3	25/05/2021

The above criteria follows the same structure as the formal qualification process and students have completed all work they would have in previous years.

AO4 Analyse, evaluate and make substantiated judgements about interpretations (including how and why interpretations may differ) in the context of historical events studied.

AO3 Analyse, evaluate and use sources (contemporary to the period) to make substantiated judgements, in the context of historical events studied.

AO2 Explain and analyse historical events and periods studied using second-order historical concepts, such as causation, consequence and significance, change and continuity over time.

AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the periods studied.